

Dear FCC,

I understand that we are again engaged in a debate over Net Neutrality and the classification of ISPs under less or more stringent regulations under Title I and Title II of communications legislation.

I am 100% in favor of ensuring equal opportunity through what is commonly known as net neutrality and regulation that ensures equal access and fair and equitable bandwidth distribution for vendors.

Robert Brannan